PLAGAL+ ON LEAK FROM SUPREME COURT

May 11, 2022 | Press Release

Washington — Recently Politico released a draft of the majority opinion of the Supreme Court deciding the Dobbs v. Jackson case. While we don't know the outcome of this case at this moment, it shines a light on work yet to be done. PLAGAL+ sees this as a call to action for all those who care about the welfare of those facing unexpected pregnancies.

Regardless of the legality of abortion, it is critical that people have access to the resources and services they need to make life-affirming decisions. This opens the door for our society to protect unborn children and their mothers from the violence of abortion while supporting women with better support and choices.

PLAGAL+ urges a spirit of collaboration between individuals on both sides of the abortion debate in working to address the societal factors that make many feel that abortion is their only option. PLAGAL+ is uniquely positioned to be a bridge between the broader LGBTQ+ rights and pro-life movements, and we will work to foster productive dialogue in our public outreach.
